A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Liturgy Of The Word

FIRST READING

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

I called, the God of justice gave me answer; from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me! R̄

*Know that the Lord works wonders for his faithful one;
the Lord will hear me whenever I call him. R̄*

Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord. You have put into my heart a greater joy. R̄

*In peace I will lie down and fall asleep, for you alone,
O Lord, make me dwell in safety. R̄*

SECOND READING

*I John 2:1-5A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

The Word of the Lord.Thanks be to God

Alleluia

GOSPEL READING

John 24:35-48The Lord be with you.And with your spirit.A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.Glory to you, O Lord.

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord.Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgi Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Processional on Easter Hymn
 Vidas Pinkevicius

In memory of Jimmy L. Sullivan

Household of God - by Father Misbrener

A reflection for Divine Mercy

Dear Friends:

On the Third Sunday of Easter in Year A, we read the story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. In Year B, right now, we read what happened on their return to Jerusalem.

The disciples tell the story of the stranger who joined them on the road and whose words caused their hearts to burn within them: the Stranger, who, in breaking bread revealed who He was.

Then, as the story unfolds, the Jesus who disappeared from the inn on the road to Emmaus comes among them with words of peace. The reaction of the disciples is nature in the face of events beyond human comprehension--fear and alarm. Even having had the witness of the women--and the disciples on the road--the mystery is too great--this must be the ghost of Jesus returned to haunt them--to condemn them for their lack of courage and faith in him.

Instead, Jesus speaks words of calm--striving to reassure them that he is not a ghost--encouraging them to touch him and feel the substance of his body--and going further, eating a piece of fish--which no ghost could even contemplate.

Their joy is great--but Jesus wants them to go beyond joy: he wants them to understand. And so, he again goes through the Scriptures drawing out the threads of the story which he has brought to fulfillment.

He reminds them that he had foretold the events of his Passion--his Death--and resurrection but accepts that they could not have understood until the events had taken place.

Now they had lived through the momentous events--they had seen their friend cruelly killed and lived through grief and despair that followed. But then, they had seen--touched and heard that same friend, risen from the dead.

They were to become his witnesses--to speak of their experience--their sense of joy in their encounter with the risen Jesus.

They had taken a good deal of convincing--but were not commissioned with the task of witnessing to Jesus' life, death and resurrection and to proclaim the forgiveness of sin made possibly in his name...

...and for that they were going to need the Holy Spirit.

Which Scripture stories help you to believe that the events of Easter really happened? How does your life bear witness to that belief?

The risen Christ stands in our midst and asks, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet, that it is myself." This is the Lord's commandment to us. "The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments." When we are in distress, we beg the Psalmist, "Let the light of your countenance shine upon us!" God has answered that prayer, for "God raised the author of life from the dead." The Lord will hear and have pity. "Touch and see."

Happy Easter

Father David
Priest & Sinner
