A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ritury Of The Word

FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever." Let the house of Aaron say, "His mercy endures forever." Let those who fear the Lord say, "His mercy endures forever. 𐌹

I was thrust down, thrust down and falling, but the Lord was my helper. The Lord is my strength and my song; he was my savior. There are shouts of joy and salvation, in the tents of the just. 𐌹

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done, A marvel in our eyes. This is the day the Lord had made; let us rejoice in it and be glad. 𐌹

SECOND READING

*I John 5:1-6A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

GOSPEL READING

John 20:19-31The Lord be with you.And with your spirit.A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.Glory to you, O Lord.

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgi Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

A reflection for Divine Mercy

Dear Friends:

Christ is Risen!

How can anyone argue against Divine Mercy Sunday?

Divine Mercy is hope wrapped up in a loving God, ever ready to embrace us and forgive even our greatest sins. Believing in God, but not in Divine Mercy would be a depressing and burdensome faith to bear.

At the core of the gospel story of the good thief is unconditional love and compassion. Today, you will be with me in paradise. Not, okay your sins are forgiven; now do this and this and this, and you will be saved. But, today--now--you will enter into glory with me. Welcome!

Divine Mercy is often associated with the visions and private revelations of St. Faustina. Pope St. John Paul II had a great devotion to this Polish nun. When he declared the Second Sunday of Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday, many took it as a papal decree to promote the devotions described in Faustina's "Diary," such as venerating the Divine Mercy Image and praying the chaplet.

As Catholics, many have a soft spot for devotions and devotionals. It's part of our hands-on sacramental nature. But we are also a diverse bunch. What speaks to one may not speak to another. Devotions and belief in private revelations--even if approved and recommended by the Church--are not mandatory. Offering a special Mass that includes the Divine Mercy devotions for those who wish it is a good thing.

Presenting the devotions as an obligatory form of worship for the Second Sunday of Easter, also called Thomas Sunday, is not. Even some Divine Mercy websites are careful to stress that this Sunday is not meant to be a "party for devotees." They focus, they say, should be on bringing hardend sinners back into the fold.

Perhaps we, as a Church, need to spend less time worrying about bringing back "hardened sinners," and more time showing mercy toward those struggling to stay despite hurts and rejection. We need to reach out to those who have one foot out the door, or who have already had the door closed on them.

As we meditate in gratitude for God's generous mercy shown to us, we should look honestly at the mercy that we show to others. Our God is a God of mercy. Are we a Church of mercy?

Happy Easter

Father David
Priest & Sinner

Thank You!

Special thanks to everyone who made our Holy Week and Easter celebrations in the Basilica and St. Peters beautiful. From Bobby Sullivan and our parish choir, who worked several months and many hours to prepare for our fine Liturgical celebrations, to all who cleaned and decorated the churches (Tammy Bukoffsky), and to all of our ministers who helped in the liturgies. Thank You very much! If you notice the floor of the basilica, it is cleaned and polished, thanks to Ben Turner. We have the same floor in the basilica as the Cathedral of St. John in Cleveland. I inquired what they used in cleaning the floor at the Cathedral, and we are now using the same cleaners.

All of our beautiful liturgical celebrations and decorating doesn't happen by magic. We have a core group of volunteers who help. Thank you to everyone who assisted in making our Easter celebrations beautiful.

Food Pantry

Due to the increase in food cost and increased need, your donations are appreciated more than ever. The following items are always needed: plastic grocery bags, soup, saltine crackers, graham crackers, canned vegetables, canned fruit, macraonie and cheese, pork and beans, peanut butter, jelly, canned tuna fish, ramen noodles, pasta, pasta sauce, ravioli, beefaroni, canned beef stew and canned chili. Food donations are to be left at the Altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Cash/check contributions are also welcome! Thank you for your support.

ALTAR ROSARY GUILD FUNDRAISER UPDATE:

Saints Alive!

Saturday, April 27, 2024 5:30 PM - 9:30 PM
Kent Stark Conference Center

Thank you to our new sponsors, Dr. Mike McCabe, in honor of Ann McCabe, Julie & Joe Strancar, Fr. David M. Misbrener, Martin & Elizabeth Misbrener, Stefen & Lisa Woods. The Altar Rosary Guild is grateful for your generosity! We are also humbled and thankful for the many friends, family, and parishioners who have donated financially or items to make this evening a success.

Altar Rosary Guild will be in the back of the churches today after all masses to sell raffle tickets at $5 each. The cash raffle has been a long time favorite fundraiser, and has been integral in funding candles, hosts, altar wine, and other sacramental items, so we appreciate your generosity. There is an additional payout this year; the winner will be drawn at the event, but the winner does not need to be present to win. Good luck!

We appreciate our parishioners who have turned in their reservations for Saints Alive! Our goal is 200 guests, so please RSVP today! Deadline for RSVP for Saints Alive is April 15.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
