A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Church,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Miturgy Of The Word

FIRST READING

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 98

O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation. ☩

*The Lord has made known his salvation, had shown his deliverance to the nations. He has remembered his merciful love and his truth
for the house of Israel. ☩*

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song, and sing out your praise. ☩

SECOND READING

I John 4:7-10

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

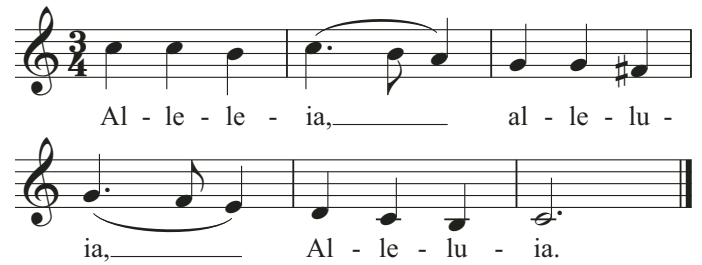

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING

John 15:9-17

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgi Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

Household of God - by Father Misbrener

Dear parishioners and friends. Christ is Risen!

Every once in a while, I like to share with you some reports of happenings going on in the parish. It is just a nice way to keep everyone informed.

First, I would like to share with you a movie I recently saw named "Cabrini." If you have a chance to see, or rent this movie, or eventually buy it please do. I know we have some Italian parishioners, and the movie is about the life of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini was our first American Saint. She came from immigrants, what America is all about. The movie also shows the prejudices immigrants, especially Italians had to face, and the early birth pains of the Catholic Church in America. I would highly recommend this movie, especially if you enjoy history.

I am currently reading the book: "Too Small A World-The Life of Mother Frances Cabrini" by Theodore Maynard. The book was first written in 1945, before Mother Cabrini was named a saint, however it is a wonderful, and very readable biography of her life, and the happenings of our Church during her time. Maynard was a great writer and Church historian of his day. The book has been reprinted.

I'm also reading a new book that has pithy sayings by Pope Benedict XVI called "God Is Ever New: Meditations on Life, Love, and Freedom." You can really get to know Pope Benedict's thoughts with this book covering many subjects. It is not uncommon for me to have two or three books going at the same time.

Mr. Pat Kelly of the Diocese of Youngstown Finance Office visited our councils recently. He visited our parish and finance councils at my request. As we are going forward with the parish merger on July 1st, some of our council members had questions, and I wanted them to be able to address any concerns with Mr. Kelly. Again, he came at my request. There were no "grave" issues to be addressed. The merger is happening, and I need everybody's support to make it happen. I am doing my best to continue the work that was begun by Father Sheridan. With the merger, to sound like a Treky--"We are boldly going to where no man has gone before." There will be bumps in the road. There is NOT a blueprint or a magic wand to make this happen, however, like with the collaboration process our parish can serve as a role model. REMEMBER, we are not the only parishes in the Diocese doing this, however, we can choose to do it well.

Sunday, May 12th is the Feast of the Ascension of our Lord. During all of the Masses that weekend, I would like to celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. This will be celebrated at all of the Masses. I will use anointing oil, but also the "Myrrh Bearing" holy oil I have from weeping icons, collected over the years for the Sacrament. This will actually be the Sacrament of the Sick. We don't like to use the term "last Rites" anymore.

Infant of Prague Novena

Since I was a young priest, I've always had a devotion to the Infant of Prague. We are about to undertake a number of ambitious projects around our churches. Some will begin quicker than others. I am still working on and taking bids for the interior painting and restoration of the Basilica Church, and we are also taking bids for the parking lots at both parishes. The Basilica parking lot really needs work.

I am going to institute a Novena to the Infant of Prague on Tuesday Evenings after the 6:00 PM Mass in the convent chapel. This is usually our best attended weekday Mass, and I want to have heavenly guidance and help as we begin and continue these projects. Devotion to the Infant of Prague has helped me and served well in all the parishes where I have served as a pastor. No doubt this devotion will continue to help us in our churches. As soon as I receive the prayer-cards I ordered, we can begin the novena. All are welcome to attend our daily Masses and devotions.

My beloved, old, pastor, Msgr. Hladky was 88 years old and I was assigned to him at SS. Peter & Paul Byzantine Catholic Church in Warren, Ohio. Times were different, but he credited the Infant of Prague for his building of the entire parish plant.

Make it a good week,

Father David

If you would like to join the Book Club or need a book ordered, please call Lori Roethlisberger at the St. Peter Rectory. All are welcome!!

Prayer for the Beatification of Rhoda Wise

Heavenly Father, the love of your crucified Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, sustained the Servant of God, Rhoda Wise, in her many sufferings and made her by grace a strong woman of faith. She led others to the Sacred Heart of Your Son, Jesus. She devoutly promoted daily recitation of the Most Holy Rosary. Prayers were answered.

Faith was strengthened. May her Beatification come quickly as we ask for her intercession in this need. . . (pause and add your intention). We ask this through the Heart of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord. Amen

GRADE 5 MAKING SMOOTHIES

Our 5th graders have been doing a cooking/nutrition class every Wednesday for the last several weeks with Mrs. Elizabeth Schweigert, Extension Agent through Central State University. They have enjoyed learning about foods and what is good for them. In these pictures they got to ride a bike to run the blenders to make their own smoothie. Thank you to Mrs. Schweigert for coming and teaching our students about nutrition.

SOLAR ECLIPSE DAY OFF

All of the Stark County schools including St. Peter School will be closed for the Solar Eclipse on Monday, April 8th. The Parish has given glasses to us for every student in the school that will go home with them on Friday, April 5th so that they are able to view the eclipse safely! We say thank you!!!
