A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Parish,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise
 to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Old Hundredth

Many of the British Protestants who left England during the reign of Mary Queen of Scots - went to Geneva. That city already had a strong tradition of metrical psalms, frequently sung to the music of Louis Bourgeois. The English-speaking refugees began to write their own psalm settings for use with the Bourgeois music. This famous version of Psalm 100 appeared in Foursocre and Seven Psalms of David - Geneva, 1561). William Kethe, claimed that he wrote the text, however this is not universally accepted.

This hymn tune, which is used universally in Christian churches, is known as the Doxology: Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, you heavenly hosts; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen! In a protestant worship service, it is generally used as the gifts (offering, wine & bread, etc) are brought forward to the Pastor.

Liturgy Of The Word

FIRST READING

1 Kings 19:4-8

A Reading from the first Book of Kings:

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord.

*I will bless the Lord at all times;
praise of him is always in my mouth.
In the Lord my soul shall make its boast;
the humble shall hear and be glad. ℣*

*Glorify the Lord with me;
together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free. ℣*

*Look toward him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This lowly one called: the Lord hears,
and rescued him from all his distree. ℣*

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who fear him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him. ℣

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:30-5:2

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

Brothers and sisters: Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Howard Huges, SM

GOSPEL READING

John 6:41-51

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Glory to you, O Lord.

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven?'" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets: They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

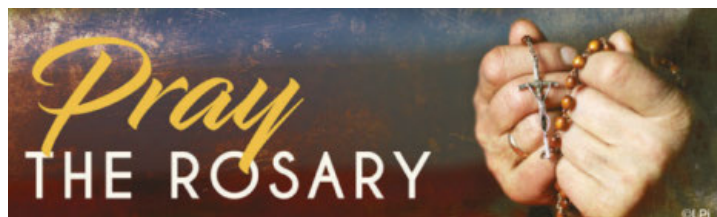

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

Stanzas one and two of this hymn appear in Frederick Faber's Jesus and Mary: Or Catholic Hymns (London, 1849). There are nine stanzas of six lines in that source. The third stanza given here, however, is not Faber's work. It may be found in Mediator Dei Hymnal.

The tune, Sweet Sacrament was located in the Romanischkatholiches Gesangbuch (1862). It was published in several Catholic hymnals in Germany before it came to this country. The tune is almost always used with this text.

Household of God - by Father Misbrener

Dear Friends:

Fed by the Love of Jesus and Mary
by
Francis Cardinal

One could not reflect on the Church without meditating on the Mother of God, who is "intimately united with the Church. As Saint Ambrose taught, the Mother of God is a type of the church in the order of faith, charity and perfect union with Christ" (Lumen Gentium). The council continues: "But while in the most holy Virgin, the Church has already reached that perfection whereby she is without spot or wrinkle, the followers of Church still strive to increase in holiness by conquering sin. And so they to their eyes to Mary who shines forth to the whole community of the elect as the model of virtues."

The Church honors the Virgin Mary especially in the Advent Liturgy and in Christmastide. Her major feasts are distributed throughout the rest of the Liturgical year. In this way the great things done for Mary by the Almighty are celebrated in the cycle of the year that commemorates the mysteries of Christ. The Mother of God helps us love the Church, the Mystical Body of her Son; to appreciate the honor of being members of this Body; to carry one another's burdens; and to do our part for the spread of the Gospel. The Blessed Virgin Mary knew how to direct toward God the movements of her heart. She knew how to pray. When Elizabeth praised Mary, the Virgin gave praise to God in the Magnificat, a magnificent elevation of the heart...

Pope John Paul II wrote that "Mary is a woman of the Eucharist in her whole life. The Church which looks to Mary as a model, is also called to imitate her in relationship in this holy Mystery." Let us pray to the Most Blessed Virgin Mary to intercede for us for a greater openness to the grace of God in our personal prayer; for more faith and devotion in the various liturgical celebrations, especially Holy Mass. Pope Benedict XVI wrote on the same point: "Every time we approach the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharistic Liturgy, we also turn to her who, by her complete fidelity, received Christ's sacrifice for the whole Church"...The Mother of Christ, King of kings, and Lord of lords, will not forget her children who are striving to see clearly how better to witness to Jesus in society today...The Virgin Mary will help the Church to be, and continue to be, and authentic and credible voice of Jesus in the world today. Behold your mother, Jesus said to John at that supreme moment from the cross. Like the beloved disciple, let us take this exceptional Mother into our home.

Funeral Mass - Pre-planning

Many people have asked if they can make "pre-arrangements" for their funeral liturgy. They want to alleviate this burden, during a difficult time, for their family by planning their own funeral. Many people have already started this process. If you are interested in doing so, several documents (Readings and Music List) and a set of instructions (prepared by Father Sheridan) will be e-mailed to you and you may return them at your leisure. After all the readings, hymns/songs are chosen, a document will be prepared containing all of this information in an organized fashion, then signed by the person making the arrangements, the priest and the organist/director of music, then filed away until it is needed. For more information, please e-mail or call, Bobby Sullivan at musicatthebasilica@gmail.com or 330-453-8493 x 205.

A parishioner in good standing is: "One who is REGISTERED and actively participates in the liturgical life of the parish through the generous, sacrificial and proportionate sharing of his/her God-given giftedness of time, talent, and treasure."

Saint John Cemetery Saint Peter Cemetery

Two years ago Saint John Cemetery and Saint Peter Cemetery installed a Columbarium in each cemetery. A columbarium is a structure of vaults (or niches) lined with recesses for an urn of cremated remains. With the increase of cremation throughout the country, this could be an option for you to consider for your final resting place. Pricing begins at $2,000.00 up to $3,000.00. This includes opening/closing the niche at the time of death, the engraving on the marble plate which covers each niche. There are 96 niches at Saint John Cemetery and 35 niches at Saint Peter Cemetery. Pictures of each columbarium can be found below. If you are interested, please call the Parish Office.

Book Club

Please join us for our next book on Thursday, August 29th from 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM in the St. Peter Rectory. We will be discussing the book "The Day the World Came to Town" by Jim DeFede. If you have any questions or would like to join the book club, please call Lori Roethlisberger at the Rectory.

When 38 jetliners bound for the United States were forced to land at Gander International Airport in Canada by the closing of U.S. airspace on September 11, the population of this small town on Newfoundland Island swelled from 10,300 to nearly 17,000. The citizens of Gander met the stranded passengers with an overwhelming display of friendship and goodwill.
