A Prayer for Our Parish

O God, You enlighten us with your charity,
 and enliven us with your grace;
 You guide us by your wisdom and give us
 hope for the future;
 You call us each by name.
 As parishioners of the Basilica of St. John the Baptist and St. Peter Parish,
 You have brought us
 together for Holy Mass.
 May our prayers and praises
 be pleasing to You.
 Transform us by Your mercy,
 and make us one in Your love.
 Help us to use the gifts You have given us to proclaim Your Gospel,
 and to serve our neighbors,
 so that one day we may share together
 the good things You promise to those who love You.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

Nehemiah 8:2-4, 5-6, 8-10

A Reading from the Book of Nehemiah:

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand. Standing at one end of the open place that was before the Water Gate, he read out of the book from daybreak till midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those children old enough to understand; and all the people listened attentively to the book of the law. Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. He opened the scroll so that all the people might see it — for he was standing higher up than any of the people —; and, as he opened it, all the people rose. Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people, their hands raised high, answered, "Amen, amen!" Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves before the LORD, their faces to the ground. Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: "Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep"— for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: "Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

*I Corinthians 12:12-30A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, "Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body," it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this. But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy. Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. Some people God has designated in the church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL READING

*Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:
Glory to you, O Lord.

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received. Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all. He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord. Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(All bow at the following words up to: and became man.)

Household of God - by Father Misbrener

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

Early Saturday morning, on January 11th, I lost my long-time companion and good canine friend, Clyde. He died in my arms with me petting him. I'm happy that I didn't have to take him to the vet to have him put down. Clyde was with me for over 10 years, so he was with me when I was in Rootstown. If you are a dog-lover, and pet owner in general, you know what I mean when I write about losing a dog. They really become a part of your life. It is always hard to say goodbye.

Bishop Warren Boudreaux was the founding bishop of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, Louisiana in 1977. He grew up in Cajun country, and one of the treasured books I have was written by him shortly before he died. It is an autobiography that he signed for me. He died in 1997, shortly after I was ordained a priest, so his "Diary of a Cajun Bishop" is a nice collectors item. Bishop Boudreaux was ordained a priest in 1942, and he was a Father of the Second Vatican Council, so having his musings about what happened at the council are a real treasure trove of what REALLY happened at the council.

The bishop writes about his priesthood, becoming a bishop as a young man, the wonderful people he worked with, his family, and also his pets, and he wrote extensively on the many dogs he had over the years. I reread his book over and over again. It is just one enjoyable story to read, of a bygone era, not only in our Church, but in our country as well. He wrote how much joy dogs gave him throughout his life, and how he sometimes liked dogs more than people. These days, that would be easy to write about! Sometimes I love dogs more than people on most days, but it depends on what kind of day I'm having.

While I mourned for Clyde (I am only writing this now, because I couldn't bring myself to talk about it last week.) The spacious rectory was just too quiet, so I went to get another dog, or, can I also say, the dog found me! My new dog's name is Carlos, and he is the same breed as Clyde was, a Mountain Cur mix. I've had to take a couple of steps of retraining him to be housebroken once again, but it has been working alright. Carlos was in the shelter for nearly two years, so it was wonderful to spring him!

He's about five years old, so he isn't fully a puppy, but he has some of those puppy qualities.

I have Clyde's remains with me. He was cremated here by a nice company in Canton. He's with my other dogs on a nice shelf in my living room.

Many years ago, when I lost another dog, my sister Lisa gave me a plaque with a beautiful quote on it. It is anonymous, but I'd like to share it with you anyway.

"it came to me that every time I lose a dog they take a piece of my heart with them, and every new dog who comes into my life gifts me with a piece of their heart. If you live long enough all the components of my heart will be dog, and I will become as generous and loving as they are."

We can only hope so!!! Please remember to bring your candles for blessing on the weekend of February 1st & 2nd. I will be blessing candles during ALL MASSES for the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. You can bring candles to take back home and keep blessed candles in your home.

Make it a good week:

Father David, - Priest & Sinner

Our sympathies are with the family and friends of Geroge Terembes who recently passed away. May God, in His love and mercy, welcome him to heaven as He comforts and consoles those who are left to mourn his passing.

Saint John Cemetery Saint Peter Cemetery

Two years ago Saint John Cemetery and Saint Peter Cemetery installed a Columbarium in each cemetery. A columbarium is a structure of vaults (or niches) lined with recesses for an urn of cremated remains. With the increase of cremation throughout the country, this could be an option for you to consider for your final resting place. Pricing begins at $2,000.00 up to $3,000.00. This includes opening/closing the niche at the time of death, the engraving on the marble plate which covers each niche. There are 96 niches at Saint John Cemetery and 35 niches at Saint Peter Cemetery. Pictures of each columbarium can be found below. If you are interested, please call the Parish Office.

Funeral Mass - Pre-planning

Many people have asked if they can make "pre-arrangements" for their funeral liturgy. They want to alleviate this burden, during a difficult time, for their family by planning their own funeral. Many people have already started this process. If you are interested in doing so, several documents (Readings and Music List) and a set of instructions (prepared by Father Sheridan) will be e-mailed to you and you may return them at your leisure. After all the readings, hymns/songs are chosen, a document will be prepared containing all of this information in an organized fashion, then signed by the person making the arrangements, the priest and the organist/director of music, then filed away until it is needed. For more information, please e-mail or call, Bobby Sullivan at musicatthebasilica@gmail.com or 330-453-8493 x 205.

Votive Candles

Candles are available in front of the Altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary in both churches. The candles are $3.00 each. If you do not have cash for the collection box, you may write a check (payable to the Altar Rosary Guild) for the entire month. The money is used to buy additional candles. Thank you.
